

I am strongly opposed to the use of cellphones on airplanes in flight. My reasons are not technical; they are purely based on issues of civility in space-limited public places.
Thank you for your attention.